About

I am a friendly, polite and diligent individual, motivated by challenges and being a team player. I value the opportunity to learn new skills. Also, I'm enthusiastic to learn and am currently completing a Bachelor of Communication Design at RMIT. With a flexible and positive approach to my work I am able to work well in fast paced environments. My skill set ranges from digital design, data, photography and coding allowing me to adapt quickly and efficiently in unique situations and environments.
